

Don Larson is founder and owner of Larson Software Technology a graphics software company based in Houston Texas and a founding member of CGM Open. Don has over 35 years in computer graphics software development and technical management and extensive knowledge of CGM and its application to several industries. Over the course of Don's career he has served on the SEG Graphics Standards committee, Petroleum Industry CGM Profile consortium, involved in the ATA (Air Transport Association) CGM profile development, a member of CGM Open WebCGM Technical committee, and the W3C WebCGM working group.